VICTIMS OF CRIME ADVOCATE (VOCA) HOTLINE 775 – VOCA (775-8622)

The Ministry of Health and Human Services is informing the public that the Office for the Victims of Crime Advocate (VOCA) has been re-established at Division of Human Services, Bureau of Public Health Services.

VOCA is the focal point in coordinating assistance for victims in the immediate aftermath of a crime and the support they need to rebuild their lives.

If you need assistance or information on victim services or resources, please contact the VOCA hotline at 775-VOCA (775-8622). If you feel that you are in immediate danger, we urge you to call the police at 488-1422 or 911.

If you have questions or need further information, you may contact the Division of Human Services, Bureau of Public Health at 488-2575 or the Bureau of Public Health at 488-4772.

Thank you.
